Shedding Light on Tigerton Streets

Central Wisconsin Electric Cooperative is always looking for ways to help its local communities through its Commitment to Community program. A recently completed street light project in Tigerton is a great example. Linemen Quinn Zdroik and Chris Tuszke replaced eight 150 watt high pressure sodium street lights with more energy efficient 70 watt LEDs. "We were very surprised at how affordable the lights were and we hope they operate as planned. If they perform as we expect, we will install more in the future," said Mike Wade, CWEC President & CEO. There are many benefits to switching from traditional street lighting to LED street lighting. Chief among the benefits is that LEDs have extremely long lives, resulting in lower maintenance. LEDs are highly energy efficient using less electricity while producing more light per watt. Because of their energy efficiency and long lifespan, LEDs are environmentally friendly.

CWEC lineman, Quinn Zdroik removing the old street light, while CWEC lineman, Chris Tuszke prepares the new LED Street light.

Quinn Zdroik, CWEC lineman, tests the new LED Street light, which will help light up the corner by Zion Lutheran Church.

Christmas is Coming...

Well, kind of. If you head out to do some early Christmas shopping, please keep those less fortunate in mind. We will once again hold a Toys for Tots drive. Last Christmas, through the generosity of our members, we were able to help put smiles on the faces of more than 890 children. All indications are that the amount of children in need will be as high or even higher this year, so please help us if you can. Please watch for locations of toy drop-off boxes scattered throughout our service area. A complete list will be posted on our website at www.cwecoop.com or call the CWEC office for a location near you.

All toys collected are distributed locally.
