2024 YEAR IN REVIEW

It was another active year for Central Wisconsin Electric Cooperative as all our employees worked to serve our members. Thankfully, we did not have any major storms that caused multi-day outages. The power outages that we did have, our linemen were able to restore power quickly and efficiently so there was limited inconvenience to our members.

Our linemen do more than restoring power when it goes out. They also work throughout the year maintaining the electric grid in the CWEC territory. This maintenance is integral to helping prevent outages from happening.

During the year, CWEC embarked on many projects to help ensure the integrity of the CWEC electric grid. Some of the projects included:

- Wrapped up the majority of the new meter installs for our new AMI System
- Completed annual inspections
 - » Pole inspections
 - » Underground inspections
 - » Substation inspections
 - » Hazard recognition inspections
 - » Oil circuit recloser maintenance
- Converted 6.88 miles of overhead lines to underground lines
- Converted 1.17 miles of single-phase overhead lines to 3-phase overhead lines
- Replaced 4.9 miles of old unjacketed underground cable
- Replaced 1.06 miles of old #6 Copper overhead wire
- Completed vegetation maintenance of 140 miles
- Started on the expansion/grounding for the Sannes Substation
- Replaced 31 rejected poles
- 57 new connections

In addition to the hard work of our employees, the success of the cooperative was also dependent on its members, volunteer member committees, and board members. I thank each and everyone of them for their support and commitment to CWEC. The strength of any cooperative is its membership and we are fortunate to have so many members who are willing to give of their time and talents to help our cooperative stay healthy and strong.

One of the committees that consists of cooperative members is the Operation Round Up Committee. The committee reviews applications from area charitable organizations, individuals in need, and schools who are requesting funds. In 2024, the committee approved the disbursement of $20,250 in Operation Round Up funds to worthy causes. The committee also approved $24,400 to be distributed in the form of scholarships to area students attending secondary schools. Two area high school seniors were each awarded a $1,000 CWEC Utility Worker Scholarship and two area school districts were awarded STEAM grant funds.

Other noteworthy items regarding the cooperative from throughout the year included:

- For the second year in a row, we sent two linemen to work on the Navajo Nation lighting project.
- Retirement of $250,000 of capital credits.
- Our investment in the West Riverside Energy Center near Beloit continues to benefit CWEC members with lower electricity rates.
- Distributed more than 3,000 toys to almost 1,200 area children through CWEC's Marine Corps Reserves Toys for Tots campaign.

As I conclude this year in review, I want to thank CWEC Board Director Lee Lehrer for his dedicated service to representing District 2. Lee has decided to retire from the board. On behalf of all of CWEC, I thank Lee for his many years of service and dedication to the cooperative.

We look forward to 2025, and will strive to continue to provide our members safe and reliable energy. I look forward to seeing you at our 87th Annual Meeting on Thursday, April 10 at 6 p.m.

MEET THE DIRECTOR CANDIDATES

Central Wisconsin Electric Cooperative (CWEC) members who live in District 2 and District 3 have the opportunity to participate in the CWEC director election in April.

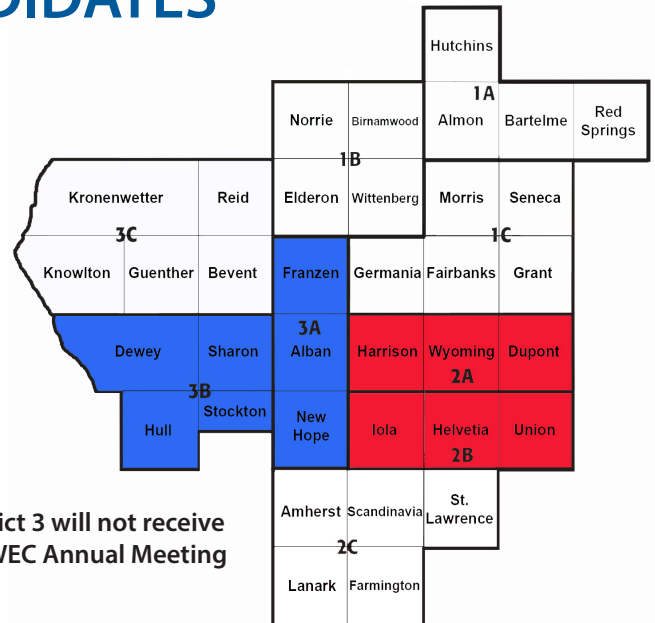

The seat to represent District 2 is currently held by Lee Lehrer, who has decided to retire from the board. Todd Pamperin and Nathan Reichle are on the ballot for the District 2 seat.

CWEC members in District 2 should receive information on how to cast a ballot, as well as the official ballots, in the mail by late March.

Current Director Allen Zander is running for reelection and is unopposed in District 3.

Since the District 3 race is uncontested, CWEC members in District 3 will not receive ballots in the mail. Those members will vote in-person at the CWEC Annual Meeting on April 10.

Below is information about the candidates.

DISTRICT 2 CANDIDATES

Todd Pamperin, Town of Wyoming

Todd Pamperin and his wife, Laurie, live near Big Falls in the township of Wyoming. Todd has been a member of CWEC since 2001. In 2007 he followed his love of horticulture and started his own business. Todd has served on the Township of Wyoming town board and the Comprehensive Planning Committee. Todd is also involved in coaching youth and the Tigerton Food Pantry. Todd enjoys golfing, gardening and taking care of his animals on his hobby farm. Todd believes the future of energy is very important for all members and for future members of CWEC.

Nathan Reichle, Town of Helvetia

Nathan Reichle's whole career has included serving on boards of not-for-profit organizations. He has been a pastor since 2006 and at St. Paul Lutheran Church and School in Manawa since 2015. His expertise at searching Scripture to learn what it means equips him well for the work of searching through regulations and legal documents that regulate the operations of the Cooperative. The members of St. Paul, Manawa are references for Pastor Reichle's capabilities in organizational management. Further, to demonstrate Pastor Reichle's good reputation among his colleagues: since 2010, Pastor Reichle has been entrusted by the North Wisconsin District to support and build up its new pastors and their families. He has enjoyed a 19-year career as a leader and contributor to community health. Reichle is interested to serve on the CWEC Board of Directors to use the factors that determine the cost and reliability of electrical service in order to bring the most reliable service possible so that when we members get our electricity bills, we are happy with what we pay for the service we get. Since 2016, Nathan, his wife of 21 years, and their four children, have lived on a hobby farm in Helvetia where they raise chickens and beef cattle. Since 2023, they have been "Distributed Generation" members of CWEC because of their solar panels.

DISTRICT 3 CANDIDATE

Allen Zander Town of Alban

Al Zander has been a member of CWEC for 42 years and lives in the Town of Alban, Portage County. He retired from Coca-Cola in the spring of 2021 after 31 years of service. During his employment with Coca-Cola, he served as a route driver, service technician, warehouse manager, and distribution manager. Al is currently a member of the Rosholt Booster Club. His past service includes 18 years as a volunteer with the Rosholt Fire District and 16 years with the Rosholt First Responders. Al and his wife of 42 years, Janet, have two children and three grandchildren. He enjoys boating, working in the woods, making maple syrup and spending time with his family.

LINEWORKERS ARE WIRED FOR SERVICE

In the quiet hours before dawn breaks, while many of us are still nestled in our beds, lineworkers begin their day, often clad in flame-resistant clothing, safety goggles, rubber gloves and thick, heavy boots.

They are the individuals who epitomize dedication to service in its purest form. As we celebrate Lineworker Appreciation Day on April 14, this is an important moment to reflect on the essential role they play in our daily lives.

Amid towering utility poles and power lines, lineworkers exhibit a strength that goes far beyond the physical. Whether battling inclement weather, troubleshooting technical problems or navigating treacherous heights, lineworkers demonstrate resilience and a quiet determination to keep our lights on, our homes comfortable, and our communities connected.

Central Wisconsin Electric Cooperative (CWEC) crews travel across our four-county service territory, building, maintaining and repairing parts of our local system. Their extraordinary skills ensure our homes remain connected to the grid, businesses stay operational, and emergency services remain accessible—a lifeline that connects us all.

In moments of crisis, when the lights go out and we find ourselves in the dark, lineworkers emerge as beacons of hope. Their swift response restores normalcy, offering reassurance in times of uncertainty. Whether repairing storm-ravaged power lines or ensuring continuity during emergencies, their unwavering commitment illuminates life when we need it most.

CWEC lineworkers also answer the call beyond the boundaries of home. Our crews travel to fellow co-ops, near or far, when widespread outages occur and additional support is needed. Cooperation among cooperatives is one of our seven guiding principles, and no one embodies this core commitment better than lineworkers.

This month, as we celebrate the remarkable men and women who ensure reliable power, let's recognize their unwavering dedication to the local communities they serve.

The next time you flip a switch, please take a moment to remember those who make it possible—lineworkers, who are wired for service and dedicated to illuminating life.

Gabe Pospyhalla, 12 years, Journeyman Lineman; Alex Lutz, 3 years, Apprentice Lineman; Mack Yarbrough, 11 years, Crew Foreman; Nate Singer, 6 years, Journeyman Lineman; Jarret Brow, 4 years, Journeyman Lineman; Wyatt Phillips, 4 years, Journeyman Lineman; Alex Cronk, 3 years, Apprentice Lineman; Josh Wick, 6 years, Journeyman Lineman; and Chris Tuszke, 33 years, Journeyman Lineman.
